Richard J. Paikoff went to high school near Sedona, Arizona. He went to Union College in Schenectady, New York, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Russian & Eastern European Studies. He later earned his M.A. degree in Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies from the University of Texas at Austin. He thereafter attended University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, where he graduated in 2015.

Richard is licensed to practice law in California, Nevada and Washington. He has also been admitted to the U.S District Court - Northern District of California, the U.S. District Court - Eastern District of California, and the U.S. District Court - District of Nevada. After his admission to the California State Bar in 2016, he primarily represented plaintiffs in personal injury matters, including medical malpractice, car crash, and premises liability cases. He brings his unique perspective to Schuering & Doyle LLP, where he primarily focuses on medical malpractice defense.

Outside of the office, Richard enjoys spending time with his wife and two daughters. He likes traveling, skiing, and being a father. While in high school, he hiked over 100 miles in the Grand Canyon and still cannot wait to get outside.
